

Newsletter June 2011

Welcome to The Wheatsheaf's second newsletter - thanks to all those who signed up via our website & through the Business Card Prize Draw in the pub - and apologies that it has taken us so long to put pen to paper for the second instalment. It has certainly been a busy year at the pub. Many improvements have been carried out. The pub has received some much needed TLC, and can now boast new windows, sign, porch and garden furniture, together with new upholstery in the bar area (many thanks to Diane Fallows in particular for those improvements).

Summer is now upon us and we have introduced a value for money 'Summer Lunch Menu' which we hope some of you will get the chance to try sometime soon.
Dishes from £5 and a menu will be available on the website soon.

My son, Jack, is back from his travels in South East Asia and Australia and has returned brimming with enthusiastic ideas and new flavour combinations. All this is good news because, as I've told him, some time off for his Dad is well overdue! One of our ideas is to have an oriental take away service on a Wednesday night between 6pm and 8.30pm. The menu would comprise of Fried Rice, Phad Thai and Noodles though we could be more adventurous (Spicy Squid Salad anyone?) if required. We'd love to hear whether this would be of interest to you. Please email any feedback to info@thewheatsheafatoaksey.co.uk

We've been receiving some great reviews on Trip Advisor. If you have some spare time, please add a comment or two. We are also led to believe (though not official yet) that we are once again in the Which? Good Food Guide that comes out in September. This guide is specifically based on the recommendations of customers so thank you to all those who may have written to them saying they liked us!

The prize draw in the pub continues to be popular. The next draw will take place on the 31st August and once again the prize will be dinner for 2 (excl. drinks). Dinner is from the menu, your choice of 1, 2 or 3 courses and can be taken on any night of the week we're open (Tues - Sat). If you'd like a chance to win please drop a business card in at the pub on your next visit.

We look forward to catching up with everyone soon, happy holidays to those who are going away.

Best wishes,

Tony
